The heads or authorized officials of higher education institutions (HEIs) in Region V are encouraged to submit nominees for the nine (9) GE core courses. Please submit at least (1) faculty nominee for the English version and one (1) faculty nominee for the Filipino version. Attached is the Application Form that should be accomplished by the faculty participants. The sending delivering higher education institutions (SHEIs) are advised to coordinate directly to the abovementioned identified DHEIs for the details of the training, the procedures and other requirements.

The GE faculty to be trained will take a GE course, either in Filipino or English, as students within a three-week period consisting of fifty-four (54) hours of classroom time and time spent in fulfilling other course requirements such as library work, assignments, presentations, research papers, and so on.

CHED shall shoulder the cost of training for the faculty participants in the form of tuition fees granted to the DHEIs. Food (2 snacks and lunch for 17 days) and training materials shall be provided by the DHEIs. Transportation expenses and lodging expenses of faculty participants should be shouldered by the sending higher education institutions (SHEIs).

From the nominations to be received, the DHEIs shall undertake the pre-screening subject to final approval by CHED. Due to limited slots, the deadline for submission of nominations of faculty participants shall not be later than March 30, 2017. Please take note that nominations should be submitted directly to the abovementioned DHEIs. Training Application Form can be obtained from the DHEIs or through email at amanilay@ched.gov.ph or chedtpge@gmail.com. For queries or concerns, please contact the CHED-Office of Programs and Standards Development (OPSD) at Tel. No. (02) 709-4379.
